introduction!

The rebel grrrls are a new punk group for teenage girls, ages 13 - 17, who want to get together and make zines about their opinions and how they feel! i started this group as a way for us to meet eachother and work together. i feel like people rarely do this anymore, i mean, remember the riot grrrl movement? it was all so long ago. there doesnt have to be a "point" though, always remember that if you want to start something. Our group is inspired by riot grrrls! at the moment we are all located in different places, but hopefully we can meetup and go to events together. if you have any questions or want to join, email us at rebelgrrrrlss@gmail.com
